

World Environment day 2025 was celebrated at ESICH Peenya by having an awareness program and by taking a pledge to reduce plastic use . Saplings were also planted in the premises . Everyone participated enthusiastically and shared their views on the need to protect the environment

